

CALL FOR RESEARCHERS

The Swedish Women's Lobby, in partnership with the European Network of Migrant Women, the Hungarian Women's Lobby, the Lithuanian Women's Lobby and the French Coordination of the European Women's Lobby, is seeking national researchers/consultants to conduct research within the MOTERIS Project, co-funded by the European Union.

About the project

MOTERIS: Protecting the Civic Space of Women and Girls is a two-year initiative aimed at monitoring the shrinking civic space of women and girls, mapping women's rights organisations and women human rights defenders and strengthening their capacity and resilience. The research will be conducted in 14 EU member states and feed into a EU-comprehensive Monitoring Tool Framework.

Assignment

- Conduct national research on the shrinking civic space of women and girls in the national context
- Apply the methodology and tools developed by the consortium
- Deliver a country report

Profile of candidate

National citizen currently living in or from the following countries: Latvia, Poland, Romania, Croatia, Belgium, Germany, Ireland, Spain, Austria, Czech Republic.

- Proven expertise in women's rights, civic space, or related field
- Strong research and analytical skills, incl. experience with focus groups, interviews and/or surveys
- Excellent written and spoken English as well as the national language
- Ability to work independently and meet deadlines

Estimated workload

6 months (approx. 20% FTE).

- Expected start date: 20 October 2025.
- Expected final delivery date: 31 March 2026.

Fee

EUR 2500 in total, to be payed in two instalments upon submission of deliverables.

Application

Please submit by 30 September 2025:

- CV
- Very short cover letter (max 1 page) outlining relevant experience and motivation for applying.

Contact:

Email: ebba.nikolic.kajrup@sverigeskvinnoorganisationer.se

